Dear Monty Bebe,

Greetings! For your information, our event entitled "DevCamp Training" scheduled on November 26, 2016 (Saturday) did not pushed through due to the following reasons:

1. Our guest speaker and trainer, Mr. Johnny Estilles from Freelancer.com is not in a good condition to teach and is not able to go to our training.
2. It was raining hard that day and in effect participants are discouraged to go to our training.

You can view our Facebook page <https://fb.com/upcsi> for reference. The rationale of this event and publicity material is attached in this letter.

Respectfully,

Joshua Frankie Rayo
Director for Engineering
